

Anson County Writers' Club
Minutes for January 2011

The Anson County Writers' Club met at 3:00 p.m. on Jan. 23, 2011. President Rufus Getzen opened the meeting with a report on the Carolinas Writers Conference Oversight Committee. He said the committee decided to dedicate the conference to the memory of Phoebe Medlin.

Catherine Crandell presented the treasurer's report.

Carla Marshall made a motion that the minutes be approved as read. Betsy Haskell seconded the motion, which was approved unanimously.

The ACWC has been asked by HOLLA! to judge their essay contest. The consensus was to refuse because of the lack of people available to do the judging.

The contest co-chairs reported that the judges had completed and returned the entries. Randy said he will reserve the Little Theater for the Feb. 27 Awards Ceremony. Carla Marshall reported that there were only 18 entries in 2010.

Rufus announced that Karen MacMurray has said she will step down as chair of the CWCOG after April. The club needs to be looking for grants to fund the 2012 conference.

Open Mic: Fannie Mae Perkins read an updated chapter of her book, now entitled "Six Steps to an Unfolding Curse." Members were supportive of the changes she made.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandy Bruney, secretary
